

ArtWorks 2011 Summer Projects

Avondale Mural

in partnership with Avondale Youth Council
3521 Reading Rd
Lead Artist: Cedric Cox
8 Apprentices, 1 Teaching Artist

This will be ArtWorks' first mural in Avondale and one of the only pieces of public art in the neighborhood. As part of a larger beautification project with the Avondale Youth Council, the mural will be located on the side of a strip mall with high visibility on Reading Rd.

The Banks Mural

in partnership with Taft Museum of Art and Carter
120 E Freedom Way
Lead Artist: Tim Parsley
12 Apprentices, 2 Teaching Artists

ArtWorks is reaching one of the newest parts of our City, the Banks, a new neighborhood located on the banks of the Ohio River! Facing north, on the side of an exposed wall that fronts 2nd Street, this project will add to the excitement of this brand new development. The Taft Museum of Art's art collection is acting as an inspiration for the creative outcome.

College Hill Mural

in partnership with AARP Ohio and College Hill Urban Redevelopment Corporation
6060 Hamilton Ave
Lead Artist: Scott Donaldson
10 Apprentices, 2 Teaching Artists

ArtWorks' first mural in the diverse neighborhood of College Hill is being created thanks to the joint efforts of ArtWorks, AARP Ohio, the College Hill Urban Redevelopment Corp. and the College Hill Community. Right on Hamilton Avenue, the mural will be in the heart of the community business district.

Covington Mural

in partnership with Northern Kentucky Community Action Commission
717 Madison Ave
Lead Artist: Kelley Hensing
4 Apprentices

Located in one of the busiest areas in Covington, this mural will be an artistic centerpiece to a growing community. Project Manager, Kelley Hensing has a long, enduring relationship with ArtWorks, traveling back to Cincinnati from her new home in New York City every summer to work with us. This year, ArtWorks is excited to have her on board to help with our expansion into Northern Kentucky!

Hamilton Mural

in partnership with Hamilton Vision Commission Mural Committee
24 S 2nd St
Lead Artist: Matthew Litteken
8 Apprentices, 1 Teaching Artist

ArtWorks is very excited about its first venture into Hamilton! This mural will be located right at the heart of the city. Hamilton is known as a city of sculpture and this will be their very first public mural project.

Helentown Mural

in partnership with Helentown Neighborhood Association
315 E 15th St
Lead Artist: Tammy Stephens
14 Apprentices, 3 Teaching Artists

Located on the eastern side of Covington in Northern Kentucky, Helentown is a part of the National Register of Historic Places. Located close to the Licking River, this community prides itself on its architectural and natural beauty. This mural will add to and accentuate this existing landscape.

Downtown Mural

in partnership with Jean-Robert's Table and Budig Realty, LLC
713 Vine St
Lead Artist: Scott Donaldson
8 Apprentices, 1 Teaching Artist

The wall of Jean-Robert's Table is the perfect canvas for a delicious work of art! The restaurant attracts natives and tourists alike and its wall has a prominent presence along Vine Street.

Newport Mural

in partnership with Art Machine, Inc.
1023 Monmouth St.

Lead Artist: Kyle Penunuri
8 Apprentices, 1 Teaching Artist

ArtWorks' first mural in Campbell County, Kentucky will be a gateway to Newport's business district at the southern end of Monmouth and highly visible when driving north. We will be partnering with Art Machine, Inc., an organization that is focused on youth and creativity and that is the only visual art non-profit in Newport.

Over-the-Rhine Murals

in partnership with Urban Sites multiple locations along Main St

Lead Artist: Michael Stillion
12 Apprentices, 2 Teaching Artists

ArtWorks is excited to be working on another project right in its own neighborhood! Stillions' team will be creating a series of small murals all along Main Street and incorporating some surprising materials, such as collaged parachute cloth!

Peaslee Mural

in partnership with Peaslee Neighborhood Center
215 E 14th St

Lead Artist: Emily Storch
3 Apprentices

The mural, which will be located on the wall of the Peaslee Neighborhood Center, will promote community gardening to support awareness of the new community garden/compost site at the center.

Pleasant Ridge Mural

in partnership with District A 6096 Montgomery Rd

Lead Artist: Jarrett Jamison
12 Apprentices, 2 Teaching Artists

Pleasant Ridge native and seasoned veteran to ArtWorks, Jarrett Jamison, will be leading the work on this mural. The community-oriented design will be painted on the side of Mullaney's Pharmacy.

The Singing Mural

in partnership with Cincinnati Opera and CET 1223 Central Pkwy

Lead Artist: Jenny Ustick
15 Apprentices, 3 Teaching Artists

Nationally renowned illustrator and Cincinnati resident C.F. Payne was commissioned to create this mural design that will be ArtWorks' largest mural to date. The "singing mural" features a huge cast of characters from the Nutcracker and opera stars to Mr. Red and a Cincinnati police officer. This will also be the 1st mural in West End!

Glass Installation

in partnership with Duke Energy Convention Center
525 Elm St

Lead Artist: Sandra Gross
7 Apprentices

For the second time, ArtWorks will be teaming up with the Duke Energy Convention Center to bring a piece of art to the Center. With a design inspired by the Ohio River, this piece of glass art will be located outside of the Junior Ballroom and be visible to the Center's many visitors.

Stage Crew

in partnership with Children's Theatre of Cincinnati
5020 Oaklawn Dr

Lead Artist: Kenton Brett
5 Apprentices

Art takes center stage when scenery is crafted by ArtWorks' Apprentices. The backdrops created will travel with Children's Theatre's performance troupe, ArtReach, as they bring five exciting plays to life for over 10,000 students at local schools and community organizations.

Room by Room

in partnership with Ronald McDonald House Charities of Greater Cincinnati
350 Erkenbrecher Ave

Lead Artist: Tina Westerkamp
16 Apprentices, 3 Teaching Artists

This is the heartfelt continuation of a 2009 partnership where ArtWorks filled 21 of 47 guest rooms in Ronald McDonald House's new wing with original works of mixed-media art. ArtWorks will finish the job and create works to fill the remaining 26 rooms that are "homes away from home" for children receiving medical care at Children's Hospital and their families.
